

Harmonic Media Alert Concerning the 2020 NAB Show

March 11, 2020

SAN JOSE, Calif., March 11, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- In view of the rising concerns surrounding COVID-19, Harmonic fully supports the NAB's decision to cancel the 2020 NAB Show in April. The safety of our employees, customers and partners is of paramount importance to us. While we will miss the opportunity to connect in-person, we will take advantage of virtual communications to showcase our cloud-based video streaming platforms and vital service continuity capabilities, connecting with our customers and partners through Harmonic Live CONNECTION digital events worldwide.

We also want to reassure our customers and partners that we will continue to provide them with comprehensive and robust support, taking every step necessary to safeguard their business continuity and keep their services running at all times. As a global technology leader, we have the unique ability to ensure service continuity with our strong remote operational capabilities, extensive DevOps teams across various geographies, and our innovative cloud-based video streaming and virtualized cable access solutions. You can expect the same excellence and service stability from Harmonic you are accustomed to.

Harmonic is there for you, virtually anywhere, anytime, no matter what.
